11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
12 Plaintiff,
13 v.
14 ARA KESHISHYAN (1),
15 Defendant.

Case No.: 12CR4352-JLS

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT'S
MOTION TO MODIFY STANDARD
CONDITION #1 OF SUPERVISED
RELEASE

[ECF No. 564]

16
17 On April 25, 2019, Defendant Ara Keshishyan filed a motion to modify standard
18 condition #1 of his supervised release. Defendant requests that the condition be modified
19 for employment purposes to permit travel with notification, instead of permission, to 20 neighboring districts in California and the District of Arizona. The Government has filed
21 a response in opposition.¹ Having considered these submissions, the Court will deny
22 Defendant's motion.

23 Counsel for the Government indicates that he has spoken with Defendant's
24 assigned probation officer and she reports that she regularly supervises individuals with
25 employment that requires frequent travel on short notice and that she is able to approve
26 such requests without incident. Defendant's probation officer further indicates that she is 27

28 ¹ The Government's motion to extend the filing deadline for its response (ECF No. 567) is Granted.

1 not aware of any travel requests from Defendant that have been denied. Thus, the Court
2 agrees with the Government's position that Defendant has not demonstrated a specific
3 need that cannot be met under the current conditions imposed. Accordingly, Defendant's
4 Motion to Modify Standard Condition #1 of Supervised Release is HEREBY DENIED.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
